

Open Call for a long-term Volunteering Project 2022

Duration: 1st April 2022 – 15th February 2023 (we can adjust the start date)

Location: Ljubljana, Slovenia

Association of Inclusive Culture is welcoming one volunteer within the European Solidarity Corps programme, for the so-called “Solidarity” project. The long term volunteering activity is expected to last 10 months and 15 days, preferably starting on 1st of April 2022.

The selected volunteer will be involved in the implementation of the projects and programmes of the Association, primarily in the field of sports:

- Special Sportster (VIDEO) – regular programme of sport exercises tailored for children, youngsters and adults with disabilities, taking place daily during the school year,
- Companionship – individual quality and active free time activities with children and adolescents with special needs, upon their demand,
- Be a Sportsman (VIDEO) – inclusive sport day taking place every September,
- Play With Me festival (VIDEO) in May and whose integral part are also sport related workshops,
- Inclusive Sport Weekends – Diversity Enriches us (quality free time with parents and children with and without special needs).

The volunteer will also take part in other projects and programmes of the Association, such as:

- Social inclusion program for adults with special needs with an emphasis on work occupation and psychosocial support,
- Inclusive Holiday Care – (summer and autumn holiday activities),
- Be an Artist – international children’s artist contest,
- Other projects and promotional activities of the Association.

The selected candidate, aged between 21 and 29 years, is therefore expected to have the following qualities:

- Likes to be active and appreciates sport in general,
- Is eager, motivated and interested to work with people with special needs (mostly intellectual disability, autism and associated disabilities),
- Sees the volunteering year as an opportunity to grow personally and professionally, linking its theory with practice,

- Has knowledge in Microsoft Office programmes and social media (Instagram, TikTok, FB),
- Is empathic, communicative, has the ability to adapt to various circumstances, has the capacity to react and respond to unpredictable circumstances, likes to play and has social skills,
- Is creative, able to work in a team, has a sense of responsibility, reliability and flexibility,
- Is ready to gain many practical skills, experiences and knowledge during the volunteering year.

The selected candidate will get an agreement of the volunteer work for the duration of the project. The volunteer will be provided with accommodation, food and transportation costs as well as a monthly allowance for the whole duration of the project. Selected volunteer will have the mentoring support throughout the project.

The deadline for submitting your application is Sunday, March 20th 2022. After this deadline we will do a selection and organise online interviews with shortlisted candidates.
